

New Asia College
Student Hostel Selection Criteria, Rules and Regulations
For Local Undergraduate Students
(updated in April 2022)

Introduction

In order to achieve the educational goals of New Asia College, residential halls were established to provide students with a decent learning, research and living environment, where they can enjoy a balanced development. Through living with others, they learn how to communicate and become independent and self-disciplined.

(A) Resident Selection Criteria

1. Special quotas, home district, household type and household area per capita as well as extra-curricular activities are the four basic criteria for resident selection.
2. The aforementioned criteria are set in Appendix 1, 2, 3 and 4. Details are as follows:

Appendix 1	Special Quotas
Appendix 2	Home District	Highest points: 45
Appendix 3	Household type and household area per capita	Highest points: 35
Appendix 4	Extra-curricular Activities	Highest points: 20
3. (a) Offenders of Student Hostel Regulations will have points deducted in their hostel application for the next academic year. Deduction by the Committee on Student Hostels ranges from 1 to 20 points according to different circumstances.
(b) Residents who breach the rules for receiving overnight-guests will be penalized as follows:
 - 1st breach of rules: 3 - 8 points deducted
 - 2nd breach of rules: 20 points deducted
 - 3rd breach of rules: Disqualified for hostel application in the next academic year

(B) Potential Residents

1. Guaranteed One-year Residence Scheme

All final-year undergraduates from New Asia College, who have not been previously allocated student residence in the College (except Summer Residence), can apply for the Guaranteed One-year Residence Scheme. Priorities will be given to the aforementioned undergraduates and there are 100 quotas for male and female students respectively. Places are distributed by computer lottery system. (Undergraduates from Department of Medicine, Chinese Medicine can apply for the scheme from Year 2 onwards / Undergraduates from Department of Nursing and Faculty of Education can apply for the scheme from Year 3 onwards.)
2. Residences for local freshmen are allocated according to the following formula:
$$A \times \frac{C}{B} \times 1.2$$

A - Total number of vacancies (excluding those reserved for non-local undergraduates and exchange students)
B - Total number of local students from New Asia College
C - Total number of local freshmen
3. After allocating residences to freshmen, the remaining vacancies will be distributed among existing local and non-local undergraduates and exchange students.

Student Hostel Selection Criteria

Household Type and Household Area per Capita

1. Household Types (Maximum points: 10)

The living conditions of most areas in Hong Kong have been improved and some previous types of household like subdivided household types are diminishing. The updated number of points for household types are as follows:

Household Types	Points
Private or public housing with completion over 50 years (without refurbishment)	7 points
Private or public housing with completion of 41 – 50 years (without refurbishment)	5 points
Private or public housing with completion of 31 – 40 years (without refurbishment)	3 points
Residing at 4 th Floor or above without elevator	Additional 3 points
Special household types (document proof is required) for consideration with proposed points ranging from 0 – 10 points	0-10 points

2. Household Area per Capita (Maximum points: 25)

Students are eligible to earn extra points if their household area per capita is less than 150 square feet. All decimal numbers will be rounded off to the nearest whole numbers, e.g. 130.4 square feet will be rounded off to 130 square feet, 130.5 square feet will be rounded off to 131 square feet and so on. The point system is as follows:

Household Area per Capita	Points
>150 square feet	0
131-150 square feet	1
111-130 square feet	3
91-110 square feet	5
71-90 square feet	8
51-70 square feet	12
31-50 square feet	20
30 square feet or below	25

3. Usable area and resident number of regular staying

To simplify the application procedures, students residing in public housing are required to submit tenancy contract issued by Hong Kong Housing Authority / Hong Kong Housing Society. For others household types, students are required to submit copy of “Demand Notes For Rates and/or Government Rent” and a “Self-declaration on usable area and resident numbers of regular staying” signed by both the student applicant and principal tenant as a documentary proof.

Sample of self-declaration

I, xxx, am a current student of New Asia College, SID: XXXXXXXX, my address of regular staying is xxxxxxxxxxxx. I declare that the usable area and resident number of regular stay provided in my application are accurate and true information. Any provision of false information may lead to disqualification of my application and/or disciplinary action.

Applicant's signature

I, xxx, confirm that I am xxx of applicant and the principal tenant of the above address. I declare that all information provided by the applicant is accurate and true information. I also understand any provision of false information may lead to harmful effect on student's development.

Principal tenant's signature

Organizations which are neither registered with the Office of Student Affairs, CUHK nor New Asia College Student Union and wish to submit their past records and house programme to the Dean of Students' Office for considerations of hostel points may submit the application on an annual basis. The concerned Committee will verify and consider such documents according to the nature and performances of their activities.

- (C) To encourage communication and foster mutual understanding between local and non-local undergraduates, and to help the non-local freshmen to adapt to the life in Hong Kong, all local undergraduates may apply for having a non-local freshman as roommate. Applicants who have paired up with non-local undergraduates will receive 5 hostel admission points for one-year residence, and 3 point for one-term residence. The points will be counted in applicants' hostel admission in the following academic year (e.g. to pair up with a non-local undergraduate in 2021/22 academic year, and be eligible for claiming admission points in 2022/23). Should applications exceed number of non-local freshmen assigned to the College, applicants will be selected on a random basis. All successful applicants are not allowed to change their roommates without reasons as accepted by the College.
