

New Asia College, CUHK - Ewha Womans University Global Student Partnership Program Opening ceremony & Public lecture

Register Now

What next after the COP26:
the implications of the climate crisis and collaborative efforts in Asia

JULY 9TH, 2022 ON ZOOM

On behalf of the New Asia College, CUHK and Ewha Womans University Global Student Partnership (GSP) Program, we would like to invite you to the opening ceremony and seminar series on climate change.

NA-Ewha GSP is an academic and cultural conference led by students. The program theme for this year is "What next after the COP 26: The implications of the climate crisis and collaborative efforts in Asia"

GUESTS & SPEAKERS

Prof. Cheung Kam-siu Kenneth

Main Guest

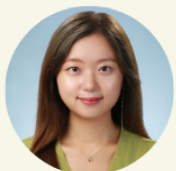

Dean of Students, New Asia College, the Chinese University of Hong Kong

Dr. Sangmi Cho

Main Guest

Vice President for Office of International Affairs, Ewha Womans University

Ms. Yesuel Lee

Speaker

CEO of Climeet

Dr. George Ma

Speaker

Head of Climate Action Section, Social Responsibility and Sustainable Development Office, the Chinese University of Hong Kong

INQUIRIES

Leader, Adeline Chan | 1155174487@link.cuhk.edu.hk
Secretary, Ricky Tian | rickytian@link.cuhk.edu.hk

SCHEDULE

- Opening Ceremony
Distinguished Guests | Prof. Cheung Kam-siu Kenneth, Dr. Sangmi Cho
12.00 pm - 12.30 pm (HKT)
- Sharing by Ms. Yeseul Lee
-Severity of climate-related environmental issues and their societal effects
-How Climeet is working on solving environmental and societal issues related to climate change
-Role of Asia amid climate issues and ways Asian countries can collaborate
12.30 pm - 13.30 pm (HKT)
- Sharing by Dr. George Ma
-Sustainable development and the UN SDGs
-The status of climate change with reference to IPCC's Sixth Climate Change Assessment Report (AR6) and examples from Asian countries
-Sustainability education and climate action through the CUHK Jockey Club Museum of Climate Change
13.45 pm - 14.45 pm (HKT)

OFFICIAL INSTAGRAM

@cuhkewha (CUHK Delegation)
@ewhacuhk (Ewha W. Univ. Delegation)