

初めまして、ビヨックです。Hello, my name is Bjork. Nice to meet you.

I enjoy singing and listening to music, and Japanese music is one of the reasons for me to start learning Japanese language. Here are some of my favorite Japanese singers: 安室奈美恵 (Namie Amuro), 宇多田ヒカル (Hikaru Utada), MISIA...etc. Recently I am listening to city pop genre a lot. Any city pop songs lover out there? Please let me know.

Learning languages is an interesting journey, which leads you not only to a brand new world of other cultures, but also to a brand new "self". It is beyond words to describe such a joyful achievement. Looking forward to share with you soon!

よろしくお願ひします。
